PLenary Speaker

Louise Hill

Louise Hill joined the University of Georgia Fanning Institute in 2003. Her primary work includes program design, curriculum development, and teaching with a focus on adult leadership education. Louise guides the Institute’s Community Leadership development programs. Currently, Louise is exploring leadership development for people with disabilities. As a part of this work, she is serving as vice-chair of the Georgia Vocational Rehabilitation Agency Board.

Previously, Louise served as the Director of Development and Alumni Relations for the University of Georgia College of Agricultural and Environmental Sciences. In this role she oversaw the fundraising and alumni activities for the College. Before coming to UGA, Louise was Director of Program Development and Education for the Georgia Farm Bureau Federation.

Louise is an alumnus of Leadership Georgia and former Board Member. She received the 1994 Kerr Award for her active support of Leadership Georgia and the 2005 Leadership Georgia Threadgill Award recognizing her community service. She was a founder of the Georgia Agri-Leaders Forum. She has served as President of the University Of Georgia College Of Family and Consumer Sciences Alumni Association and the Abraham Baldwin Agricultural Alumni Association.

Louise holds an Associate Degree of Science from Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College, a Bachelor of Science in Home Economics and Journalism from the University of Georgia, and a Master of Education in Adult Education from the University of Georgia.